

FWF

Der Wissenschaftsfonds.

universität
wien

Department for Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies

Marginalisation and subculture groups: Prostitutes, actors and tavern-keepers in Byzantium

International Symposium

16-17 May 2019

Lecture Hall

Department for Byzantine and

Modern Greek Studies

University of Vienna

Postgasse 7-9,

Staircase 1, 3rd Floor

1010 Wien

Thursday, 16 May 2019

	14.00	Registration
	14.30	Welcome Sebastian Schütze , University of Vienna Dean, Faculty of Historical and Cultural Studies Maria A. Stassinopoulou , University of Vienna Chair of the Department of Byzantine and Modern Greek Studies Ewald Kislinger , University of Vienna Projectleader
	14.40	Despoina Ariantzi , University of Vienna: Introduction
Chair: Despoina Ariantzi	15.15	Session 1: Theoretical Approaches to the Byzantine Outsider  Dion C. Smythe , Prince Muhammad bin Fahd University Studying sub-groups, minorities and underclasses in Byzantium: theoretical approaches
	16.50	Coffee Break
Chair: Nikos Zagklas	17.20	Session 2: Actors and Performers  Ruth Webb , University of Lille The problem with performance: why were actors and actresses marginalised?  Przemyslaw Marciniak , University of Silesia in Katowice A history of marginalization? The imagery of mimes in Byzantine literature
	19.30	Dinner for participants and invited guests in a traditional Austrian restaurant

Friday, 17 May 2019

Chair: Ewald Kislinger	10.00	Session 3: Prostitution  Thomas Mc Ginn , Vanderbilt University Nashville Marginalized in Plain Sight: Female Prostitutes in Late Roman Society and Law  Günter Prinzing , Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz Zeugnisse zur Prostitution in den Quellen zur spätbyzantinischen kirchlichen Rechtsprechung (1204-1453)
	11.10	Coffee Break
	11.40	Cecily Hennessy , Christie's Education London Mary Magdalene, Marginalized and Demarginalized  Frank Meier , Karlsruhe University of Education „Wenn du die Dirnen vertreibst, werden die Leidenschaften alles verwirren“. Zwischen Achtung und Verachtung – Prostitution in mittelalterlichen Städten
	13.00	Lunch Break
Chair: Andreas Külzer	15.30	Session 4: Innkeepers  Ewald Kislinger , University of Vienna Einrichtungen byzantinischer Gastlichkeit – zwischen aselgeia und euergesia  Beate Böhlendorf-Arslan , Philipps University Marburg Gasthäuser und Tavernen im byzantinischen Kleinasien
	16.40	Remarks and Conclusions
	19.30	Dinner for participants and invited guests in a traditional Austrian wine tavern (Heuriger)