The Forgotten Voices of Greek American Women: the case of Iphigenia Copadis

The presence of Greek American women of the letters in the first half of the 20th century seems to be scarce. Apart from a handful of women in the world of journalism, Demetra Vaka-Brown, Theano Papazoglou-Margaris, Efrosyni-Korinna Canouta, Maria Sarantopoulou Economidou, and very few obscure novelists, the area of female writing is still uncharted. Based on research conducted in libraries and archives in Greece and the United States for over a decade, this presentation aims to unearth inspired and inspiring Greek American women of the intellect and their respective works. It will also attempt to discuss the outstanding work of Iphigenia Copadis, novelist, publisher, and editor of Hellenida (1949-1955), the only periodical of the late forties for the Greek Diaspora world.

Im Anschluss wird zu einem kleinen Empfang eingeladen.
Gäste sind herzlich willkommen!
